1. Summary

This product bulletin announces the availability of Single Mailbox Recovery Administrative Server, part of Single Mailbox Recovery (SMBR) for Microsoft® Exchange, for production release and first customer ship.

Welcome to NetApp Single Mailbox Recovery Administrative Server 1.0. This application is a framework that can host centralized services to multiple clients and provide both client and server support for Single Mailbox Recovery 5.0 and Single Mailbox Recovery ExtractWizard users.

2. What's New?

Single Mailbox Recovery Administrative Server includes:

- Server Configuration: You can monitor the active connections and available services, change ports, stop and restart servers, and elect to be discovered in Active Directory®.
- Mailbox Permissions Service: To reinforce your internal corporate security policies, you can restrict access in Single Mailbox Recovery 5.0 to mailboxes that are contained in private EDB Exchange mailbox stores.
- Application Auditing Service: Activities performed as part of Single Mailbox Recovery 5.0 and Single Mailbox Recovery ExtractWizard operations, as well as activities in Single Mailbox Recovery Administrative Server, are logged as part of an audit trail.

You can manage these services by using the Single Mailbox Recovery Management Console, which is the main interface for this product.
