This product bulletin announces the availability of tiered controller-based parts for SnapManager® for Microsoft® Office SharePoint® Server for the R200 series. The introduction of these parts allows customers to purchase an “all you can eat” SnapManager for Microsoft Office SharePoint Server license for a particular NetApp storage controller. This allows a customer to protect any number of SharePoint content databases, as long as they are stored on storage connected to that particular controller.

There are four new controller-based parts for R200.
